Notes:

1.Minimum credits required to graduate: 128

2.Required courses: 40 credits; elective courses: 40 credits (excluding credits earned from university-wide common core requirements and general education courses).A maximum of 12 credits from recognized courses in other departments will be accepted.

3.general education courses is at least 22 credits.

4.8 credits in English and/or a second foreign language are required to graduate.

5.Students must complete any one of the internship courses specified in the fifth point of the implementation guidelines for the student internship course before graduation, along with one practical project course. However, students with special status (such as those holding disability certificates, students from Hong Kong, Macau, and Mainland China, overseas Chinese students, and international students) are exempt from taking the internship courses

6.Conditions set by the department :

A.Students must complete courses from one of the two major programs offered by the College of Foreign Languages and earn at least 18 credits to obtain the program certificate and meet graduation requirements. The actual courses offered will be primarily based on those provided by the Foreign Languages College.

B.To be eligible for graduation, students must obtain a passing certificate from one of the following exams before graduation: 1. JLPT N1, 2. Translator Certification Exam, 3. Tour Guide Exam, 4. TOPJ Advanced Exam, 5. Any other exam that meets departmental requirements. Students who have obtained these certifications prior to enrollment must provide documentation.

Those who do not pass the above exams must take the "Total Japanese Intention" course and achieve a passing grade to qualify for graduation.

C.Regardless of the credit hours, only one internship course will be recognized as required credits for graduation.
